LATONIA GOING DIFFICULT

TRACK IN BAD CONDITION AS RESULT OF HEAVY RAINS ON SUNDAY.

High Private and Irish Gentleman Figure in Exciting Contest in Feature Race and Former Is Victorious-Loftus Shines in the Saddle.

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—Weather and track conditions were against the racing at Latonia this afternoon, but good sport developed in most of the races and the attendance was also above expectations. Heavy rains made the going heavy and it required a sturdy horse to run through it with any degree of success. The volume of betting kept up fairly well, although some of the races served as mediocre betting mediums. The feature race, one mile, for a purse of $800, was marked by a spirited finish between High Private and Irish Gentleman, with the former victorious in the final stride. Irish Gentleman, showing much the most speed, dominated the early running and for a while it appeared as if he would spreading this opposition, but he tired gradually in the stretch and succumbed in the final stride. High Private would have won more easily than he did but for Goose's weakeness, which caused him to lose momentary control of his mount and allowed High Private to swerve over against Irish Gentleman in the last seventy yards. McCabe, who was riding Irish Gentleman, made no claim of foul. It is doubtful if there would have been a disqualiheation even if he had made the claim, as both shorses were tired and the interference was unavoidable. Princess Callaway, running for the first time in J. Livingston's colors, inished a close third and, with better handling, might have won. As a result of the bad going there were many withdrawals, four of the races being contested by small fields. The second race brought together about as poor a lot as has been seen hereabouts. Most of them acted fractiously at the barrier and delayed the start for a long time. Adelaide T., owned by R. J. Mackenzle, won as a result of the superior ride she received from Loftus, with Tyree in second place and La Mode third. Loftus also took the opening dash by virtue of his alerthess at the post, which helped Leo Skohy to lead for the entire trip. The starter also had his troubles in the third race and when they were sent away, it was in straggling order, wi going was supposed to be exactly to his hidig, but failed badly and was never formidable after the first quarter.

Jockey Henry, who rode Susan B. in the third race, was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding. Patrol Judge Ireland complained that he had interfered with John Gund on the first rurn. Susan B. was placed on the schooling list for fractious acting at the post.

Fred Auerbach and Gus Muller, both of whom are extensively interested in the Charleston track, were among today's visitors and will remain for several days to witness the racing.

The two-horse combination, consisting of Adelaide T, and Old Ben, yielded $23.55. High Private, Coppertown and Dr. Waldo Briggs paid $143.55 for $2 to the successful investors in the three-horse combination.

G. H. Keene arrived today from Arizona, where part owner in the horses raced by trainer Jack Keene.

J. W. Johnson, owner of Flora Fina, Milton B. and others, has bought ten yearlings from E. R. Bradley. They are by Cunard and will be turned over to trainer James S. Everman, who will break them and prepare them for racing. Flora Fina, Milton B. and Mockler will be shipped to Windsor at the close of Latonia racing.

Jockey Buxton departed vesterday for Hamilton, Ont., where he will join the J. W. Schorr stable and do most of the riding for that establishment, Jockey Goose, who returned to the saddle today, finds that the arm which he injured at Douglas Park is still troubling him and will not accept mounts again until he feels that he has thoroughly recovered.

ULTIMATUM WINS RICH JUMPING RACE.

Paris, France, June 22.—The Grand Steeplechase Le Paris, France, four miles and one-half procedule $30,200, was won yesterday at the Auteuil track by Edmond Veil-Picard's Ultimatum. M. J. Prat's Marteau II. was second, and Baron Louis La Cazes' Inquisitif, third The Aura's conver, Eugene Fischoff, finished fifth with Tripot

II.

A beautiful June day brought out a record attendance. All twelve starters were of fine quality and the race proved one of the best of the year. Ultimatum was the first favorite to justify expectations and won easily by two lengths. The betting was: Ultimatum, 7 to 2; Marteau II., 61 to 10; Inquisitif, 47 to 10.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE ASTORIA STAKES

After a hiatus of two years the running of the Astoria Stakes will be resumed today, but not at its old home, the Gravesend track. From its beginning it has been an affair productive of fine conviviality, a condition being that the owner of the victor must entertain the less fortunate owners at a feast. Good as the monetary returns of the race have always been, it has been reported that on more than one occasion the cost of said feasts exceeded the net value of the race, from which it might be inferred that more than the owners of fillies running in the Astoria were invited to take part in disposing of the good things provided. It has always been a race for fillies exclusively and its winners, without exception, have been excellent race horses. The record of the event is as follows:

EXCELLENT PRICES FOR YEARLINGS.

Twenty-Eight from J. B. Haggin's Establishment Sold at New York for $26,925.

New York, June 23.—Spirited bidding marked the auction sale of the Elmenderf yearlings, which was held this afterasoon at the stable of their owner, J. B. Haggin, at Neck Road, Sheepshead Bay. Most of the prominent owners and trainers of the cast were at the ringside. Robert Davies of Toronto purchased the star of the sale, a colt by Waterboy—Hamburg Belle, for $4,000. The Quincy Stable paid $3,000 for the Waterboy—Janice colt, besides making several other purchases at the sale, the summary of which is as follows:

New York, June 23.—Charles Kohler, the American owner of thoroughbreds who died recently in Paris, left an estate of $5,000,000. The chief beneficiaries of the will, just filed, are the testator's three daughters and his wife, all residing at 14 West Fifty-fourth street, this city. More than $30,000 is left to various charitable institutions, while employees of the various concerns with which Mr. Kohler was identified are generously provided for. About $36,000 is left to relatives outside Mr. Kohler's immediate family.

The wife is made guardian of the three daughters and the executors of the estate are the wife, William B. Ellison, a friend, and Richard W. Lawrence, president of the Autopiano Company.

At a recent meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club the following resolutions were adopted on the death of Mr. Kohler:

"Resolved, That a series of resolutions be prepared and forwarded to the family of the late Charles Kohler, expressive of the sincere regret felt by the stewards at Mr. Kohler's death, and their appreciation of his position as 'a man of affairs, and of his services to the American Turf as a sportsman of character and reputation.

"In paying this tribute to Mr. Kohler's interest in the turf, the stewards desire to lay strong emphasis upon his public spirit, his enterprise and his courageous determination to overcome any obstacle that might arise in order to demonstrate, insofar as he might be able to do so, the high qualities of the American Thoroughbred horse, and to give evidence on foreign race courses, as well as those of his own country, of the honorable standard of his own country, of the honorable standard of sportsmanship to which the American nation has always justiy laid claim.

"The efforts of Mr. Kohler met with distinct success, and it is deeply to be regretted that his premature death should have interfered so sadly with the career that gave so much promise, and which was destined to become of great henefit to the interests that he so wisely and so liberally supported.

south. No attempt to complete the steeplechase course will be made this season, although little or no grading will be necessary in its construction. Work on the track has progressed much more rapidly than was looked for. The deepest of the fills have been completed, they being where the grand stand, offices, paddock and betting enclosure will be located. The deepest fill at any portion of the track proper is not over two feet. The work is being done from four points. There are over 200 men and fifty teams employed on the plant, they being divided so that part of them are working on the stretches and the others on the turns.

The work on the front stretch is farther advanced than at any other part and it will be linked with the turns by the middle of this week. This will leave the filling in of the backstretch to be finished before the grading is commenced. The soil is of a sandy nature, which will make it easy for grading while at only one or two spots will there be need of top dressing.

Everything is in readiness for the commencement of work on the construction of the buildings. The tenders have been let and the contracts call for their completion by the end of July.

The lumber is being cut at a nearby mill and will be shipped to Dorval ready to put up. The stables will be built at the west end of the property on the rallroad side, while to the east of them will be the offices, paddock, betting ring and the stand. These latter buildings will all be connected with one another so that the public may journey from under cover. The stand will have a seating capacity of 3,500, while the ring will be over one hundred feet in length and nearly as wide.

The management of the plant will seek admission into the Canadian Racing Associations this season and will ask for dates for a meeting. The owners of the plant will run an extensive fair and will plan the plant so that between meetings it can be used as an amusement park.

Geldings are to be barred from the forthcoming running of the Australian Jockey Club's Derby. This race was only once won by a gelding in the forty-seven years of its history.

J. T. Weaver decided to dodge the Canadian Derby because he found that Gowell would have to carry 120 pounds and concede weight to Ten Point, Hawthorn and other probable starters.

An Australian who recently visited England and while there had a look at Carbine says the old champion is broken down with age. This is not surprising, considering he will be 28 years of age next August, and news of his death will not come as a surprise at any time. Despite his years he is still advertised for stud duty, though his fee is down to $240, as compared with $490 last year. The highest fee Carbine ever commanded in England was $1,000. fee Carbine ever commanded in England was $1,000. The task of improving the Lexington paddock has been begun. It is to be extended until it is double the former size and it is to be graded and leveled off and resodded. Benches are to be placed under the trees and it is quite likely to be a favorite spot daring the fall meeting. An extension to the grandstand is to be made within the coming month and before the fall meeting opens several carloads of sand will have been spread upon the inside galloping track to the end that training operations may go forward practically all winter. There are only eleven thoroughbreds at the track at present.

Nearly every racing man is more or less superstitious, and in England recently Mr. George Faber, in the hope that it might break his long run of illuck, changed his colors from "white and yellow collar" to "lilae, orange sleeves, scarlet cap.' Strangely enough, the first time the new colors were used they were carried by a winner, and were on another a few days later. However, the change did not enable Mr. Faber to win the Lincolnshire Handicap with the much-fancied Uncle Pat. Bearing on superstitions, the Paris correspondent of a London paper mentions that when the Prince of Orange raced in France he would look down his card on the morning of a meeting, and strike out any of his horses which happened to be No. 13 in a race.

ALL READY AT HAMILTON

MORE THAN FIVE HUNDRED HORSES QUAR-TERED AT CANADIAN COURSE.

Meeting of Customary Seven Days Duration Is to Open There Tomorrow-Derby to Be Opening Day Feature-Candidates at Work.

Hamilton, Ont., June 23.—With the arrival of the special horse trains from Ottawa everything is in readiness for the opening of the Hamilton Jockey Club meeting, which is scheduled to begin on Wednesday, Between 500 and 600 horses are stabled on the grounds and in barns adjacent to the track. The Ottawa specials brought about 200 horses. Several stables are here from Kentucky and New York, Frances J. Pons sent a dozen horses from Belmont Park and William Garth sent four in the same car consigned to his brother, Woods Garth. The Garth shipment included Chryseis, High Priest, Beau Pere and The Idol. Steeplechase jockey Willie Allen came along with them and may remain over for the opening day to ride one of the Garth jumpers in the Doncaster Steeplechase.

Harry Rites and Fred Parsons came from Baltimore with their horses and M. Daly brought, besides the horses he is training for Mr. Chetland, three jumpers belonging to Gwyn Tompkins. The latter consignment came from Brookline, Mass. Johnny Kermath, the steeplechase jockey, accompanied the Tompkins horses.

The feature of the opening day's program will be the running of the Hamilton Derby. This race has always furnished a good contest and, during the past six years, Canadian owners have furnished the winner on four occasions. First Sight will be the Canadian representative this season. He is owned by Robert Davies of Toronto, and has received a careful preparation for the race. He will be ridden by W. Knapp. First Sight worked a mile and an eighth is morning in 1:55%, the fractional time being 24%, 49%, 1:155%, 1:42%, 1:55%. He had his weight up and pulled up in good shape.

Some of the other moves shown by Derby eligibles were:

Some of the other moves shown by Derby eligibles were:

Horron—Mile and an eighth, as follows: 24%, 48%, 1:14%, 1:42%, 1:55%. The going was a bit slow when Horron worked and the move was a good one. The colt bulled up exceedingly tired, however, Kleburne—Mile and an eighth in 24, 48, 1:14%, 1:41%, 1:56%. He was eased up in the last sixteenth and was well in hand at the finish.

Flabbergast, another Derby candidate in the Turney stable, but owned by trainer W. M. Martin, was breezed six furlongs in 1:20.

Hawthorn—Mile and an eighth in 24%, 49%, 1:15, 1:42%, 1:57. Like Kleburne, Hawthorn was in hand at the end and had his rider wished he could have worked faster. It is said that Hawthorn will go to the post, although he was regarded as a doubtful starter up to within a few days ago.

Buskin—Mile and a quarter in 25%, 51%, 1:17%, 1:43, 2:09%. He was fighting for his head at the end and his let-up since the Montreal meeting has seemingly done him a world of good, Jockey Small will have the mount on Buskin.

The Widow Moon—Three-quarters in 1:16%, breezing.

will have the mount on Buskin.

The Widow Moon—Three-quarters in 1:16½, breezing.

Malamont arrived from Ottawa this morning. He will be breezed about six furlongs tomerrow. James Boden prepared the Flying Fox colt at Belmont Park and before leaving Ottawa announced that Malamont would be a starter in the Derby on Wednesday. In the event of his going to the post, he will be ridden by Gay Burns. Gross will ride Hawthorn and Turner will have the mount on Horron. It is no sure thing that Hawthorn will start, some of the horsemen being of the opinion that he is not ready to go the mile and a quarter.

The officials will be the same as last year, except that J. W. Graver will succeed William Midgley as patrol judge.

The Hopeful Stakes, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds, will be one of the features of the opening day program.

A dispatch from Brantford, printed in a local paper this afternoon says: "A syndicate of Toronto and Hamilton capitalists is looking over a tract of land on the outskirts of this city for the purpose of building a mile track which will put Brantford on the Canadian racing circuit. The city is most favorably located for a large daily attendance and the deal has every prospect of going through."

Another special from London, Ont., says: "We will have a race meeting in London next spring. That is absolutely assured. We will start the construction of the track and buildings this summer and we will have everything ready by the time the spring meeting is held. The plant will be one of the finest in Canada." The above statement was made to a London free Press reporter by J. L. Counsel of Hamilton, one of the men behind the venture. The license has been granted, the money is available and the directors will commence construction at an early date. The deal for the property has been closed.

ALAN RACING ENTERS ITS FINAL WEEK.

Spokane, Wash., June 23.—Today began the final week of racing at Alan. The track was fairly good, considering a heavy downpour of rain that lasted all day Sunday. Jockey Pete Hill gave Flying one of his brilliant rides in the fourth race when he brought his mount from the rear with a whirlwind rush and caught the sleeping Sielaff on Dennis Stafford in the last stride of a race that should have been won by Dennis Stafford.

The public fared badly. Horses with good prices laid against their chances were victorious except in the last race, when the favorite, Ravaria, won by a narrow margin.

Frank W. Smith, one of the stewards, will fill Phil Reilly's place in the stand for the remainder of the meeting, Mr. Reilly having gone to Vancouver.

GOSSIP FROM KENTUCKY SOURCES.

Cincinnati, O., June 23.—Trainer F. D. Weir stated that he probably will race Old Rosebud once and perhaps twice before the gelding is saddled for the Cincinnati Trophy, which is to be run on Saturday, July 5, the closing day of the present Latonia meeting. Trainer Weir believes in racing a two-year-old rather than giving him severe work-outs, and he expects in this way to keep the son of Uncle at his best for the big race. Old Rosebud is one of the best goers that it ever has been Weir's fortune to handle. The gelding has never been off a single day and has never missed a feed. He has escaped all leg and foot ailments and is sound from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail.

Trainer J. O. Keene hopes to be able to send Imperator to the post in the Trophy. He believes the son of Peter Quince will fancy the six furlong route. This colt will carry the same weight as Old Rosebud in the Trophy, 124 pounds, and the latter will be giving the Camden crack his sex allowance.

The good two-year-old, The Norman, owned by T. C. McDowell, which was left at Douglas Park by that turfman on account of sickness has joined the McDowell stable at Latonia and his condition is greatly improved. Dr. Cann reports that the three-year-old McCorkle, in the McDowell string, is also recovering from his recent attack of fever.

WHISK BROOM II FINE LOOKING HORSE.

Whisk Broom II, which has won the Metropolitan and Brooklyn Handicaps, and which may break all precedents by winning the Suburban as well, is a grand looking horse, according to reports from New York. One good judge of horses who looked him over carefully, at Belmont Park before his Brooklyn Handicap victory, said: "I went to the paddock trying to find a hole in the big chestnut and I came away convinced that he is the best-made horse I ever saw. He is marvelously muscled and withal has the delicate fineness that stamps the breed. I never before have seen such upper arass one a horse, but his muscles are so symmetrical that, like bands of steel, they blend together until one has to look closely to thoroughly appreciate his build. His head is an ideal one, and his middle-piece gives him a great reach, while the sloping shoulders and well-set quarters tell the tale of how he is well equipped to take up a great weight." All of this was said before the running of the race, When Whisk Broom II, romped home to his glorious victory his remark was: "It was just what such a horse should accomplish."

INCREASING VALUES IN AUSTRALIA.

Most of the leading racing clubs in Australia years and from Perth comes word that the Western Australian Turf Club has decided upon an increase in stakes of $50,875, which brings the total for the coming season up to $152,075, an amount which, when the relative populations of Perth and Sydney are taken into consideration, compares by no means unfavorably with the $253,850 to be distributed by the Australian Jockey Club in 1913-14.

The fact of Western Australia now having a $7,500 Derby is in itself evidence of the progress made by the Western Australia Turf Club. Prior to 1906 the Australian Jockey Club Derby never carried more than $5,000 added money, and it is only a few years ago that the added money for the Sydney Clup advanced beyond $10,000, which is now the value of the Perth Cup. The club also has one two-year-race—the Karrakatta Plate—of $5,000, and another—the Sires' Produce Stakes—of $4,000.

FINDING PATRONAGE IN AUSTRALIA.

Mr. J. Wilson, Jr., one of the keenest men on pedigrees in Victoria, recently visited the Allendale Stock Farm for the purpose of inspecting the stallions, Mazagan, Planudes, and The Scribe. The outcome was that Mr. Wilson booked, on behalf of the owners, the following mares from Bonny Vale for the coming season:—Wilari (by Wallace), Gwendoline (by Zalinski), Wee Dram (Prudent King —Parting Glass), Wilari's sister, and Tenterhook (by Clauranald) to Planudes: while Murna (dam of Wilari) and Crete (by Amherst) go to The Scribe, which is by Isinglas from Memoir, and is already the sire of some good winners. It is scarcely necessary for me to add that Planudes was a great stud success in America, a couple of his progeny being Meelick (winner of three Derbies) and Waldo, while his two-year-olds did particularly well last year and again this,—Sydney Referee.

STATISTICS OF OTTAWA MEETING.

The inaugural meeting of the Connaught Park Jockey Club, which opened at Ottawa June 14 and came to a close June 21, embraced the seven days customarily devoted to race meetings in Canada, during which forty-nine races were run and $28,500 was distributed in stables and curses, representing a daily average of $4,071, an excellent showing for a new organization. In this distribution sixty-five owners shared, and the following thirty, headed by C. S. Campbell of Montreal, were winners of $225 and over:

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORT ON DOPING.

The report of the Commission appointed by the Minister of Agriculture to examine the question of "doping" and give its verdict for or against the "infallible" process discovered by Professor Kaufmann has been laid before the Minister. The trials have been carried out at Acheres. It was first of all discovered that the saliva taken from the nine horses sequestrated in the stables on the old racecourse and fed under normal conditions showed no traces of alkaloids. The nine were then put into work as though they were being trained for a race, and still no alkaloid was discovered, and the result was a certainty that a horse's saliva was not sensitive to the test for alkaloids unless some drug had been administered. An essay was then made as to the period for the elimination of any drug which might have been given medicinally. The nine were again the victims, and, like the doctor's boy, were physicked and dragged "secundum artem" for a whole week. It was discovered that twenty-four hours sufficed to eliminate all traces of drugging, but that double that time was necessary to eliminate the traces of any preparation from tea or coffee. Thus a horse having been medically treated more than twenty-four hours previous to any race would show no trace of any alkaloid either the veterinary or trainer might have administered for therapeutic purposes. A discussion then an ears to have arisen as to the most exact tests for "doping," and the process followed by Professor Kaufmann was not considered infallible, and the fact that these alkaloids known to be included in the "hurrying-up" mixtures are eliminated within an hour makes it a difficult task to detect and prevent "doping."

THE EPSOM OAKS CONTESTANTS.

Although Jest was regarded as a somewhat lucky winner of the One Thousand Guineas, the filly gave ample proof at Epsom, when she won the Oaks and completed a splendid classic double for Mr. J. B. Joel, that her Newmarket running was thoroughly gemine. Probably the best-looking of the dozen starters were the Duke of Devonshire's Taslett and Mr. Hulton's Waiontha, though Pruc, none the worse for her outing in the Derby, also looked well. Lord Rosebery's filly was first away from a good start, but on settling down Waiontha took up the running and held command when entering the straight, though soon afterwards she died away, and Jest scored in convincing style from Depeche and Arda. The French filly, La Ribaude, could never go the pace and figured at the rear throughout.

could never go the pace and figured at the rear throughout.

There was no sensation as occurred in the Derby, though the race was not without mishap. At Tattenham Corner Lord Lonsdale's St. Begoe slipped up on the wet grass, her jockey, R. Crisp, being taken back on a stretcher, Lord Lonsdale immediately went to him and ascertained that no serious injury had been sustained, in fact, Crisp soon came round. This was Mr. J. B. Joel's third success in the Oaks, Our Lassie having won the race for him in 1903 and Glass Doll four years later. The Stewards instituted inquiries into the accident to St. Begoe, but were satisfied that it was not brought about by any of the other runners. The time occupied by Craganour in the Derby over the same course,—London Sportsman.
